Table of Contents

Each individual in the genealogy has a unique identifier that describes their location in the family tree. The first part of the individual identifier indicates the wife of John through with the person descends – 1 for Emily Morse or 2 for Nancy McGraw. The remainder of the identifier indicates the order of the person's ancestry through each generation. For example, Mary Alice Crowder is the third child of Mary Frances Pegoda who was the second child of John and Emily. Her individual identifier is 1-2.3

Acknowledgements

Genealogy is inherently a group effort. Virtually every family genealogist begins with research done by others and builds upon it. This work is no different. Many discoveries and pieces of knowledge cannot be credited to a specific individual, but where possible I have attempted to cite the research of others in the body of this work and in the list below.

- Fannie Alma Birdette (Pegoda) Alexander – various information, Bible records, and photos from the Frank P. Pegoda family line
- Norma Kay (Alexander) Poe – information about the descendants of Frank P. Pegoda
- Jennifer Stankard – information about the ancestry of Emily Morse (Mass, Moss) and the descendants of Mary Frances Pegoda
- Andrew Pegoda – information about the descendants of Doc Franklin Pegoda
- Gloria Jean Garmon – information about the descendants of Henderson Yoakum Pegoda

About the Author

I am a 5th generation descendant of John Pegoda, Sr. through his second wife Nancy McGraw. John is my 3rd great grandfather:

John Pegoda, Sr. m. 2nd Nancy McGraw
- Frank P. Pegoda m. Lula Mae Burnett
  - Georgia Effie Florene Pegoda m. Roy Jacob Anders, Sr.
    - Adda Wanda Anders m. George Avner Baldwin
      - Margaret Ann Baldwin m. Paul Clark Thompson
        - Kevin Paul Thompson m. Bethany Dawn Penton

I am a mathematician, statistician, actuary, genealogist, software engineer, and most importantly, a child of God. My wife and I were married on 10 Jun 1995 in The Woodlands, Montgomery, Texas (registered in Walker County, Texas). We have 5 children – 4 daughters and one son.

All of my genealogy research can be found at the following website on the internet:

http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nivek/

The genealogy information has also been uploaded to websites such as RootsWeb (database: nivek000) and ancestry.com public member trees.

Sources of Information

The vast majority of information contained in this book comes from a small set of well-known genealogical data sources. Below is a list of the most heavily used sources.

- 1850-1940 United States Census records (ancestry.com)
- Texas Birth Index, 1903-1997 (familysearch.org)
- Texas, Deaths, 1890-1976 (familysearch.org)
- Texas, Deaths, 1977-1986 (familysearch.org)
- Texas Divorce Index, 1968-2010 (familysearch.org)
- Social Security Death Index (familysearch.org)
  NOTE: Social security numbers are only given for deceased individuals as these are the only numbers available in legitimate public / genealogical resources.
- Find A Grave (findagrave.com)

Some information was also taken from RootsWeb and public member trees on ancestry.com. Unfortunately, such information is rarely documented properly.

Privacy Statement

Virtually all information included in this book is easily available. As indicated above, the sources of information used are almost exclusively genealogy-related databases available at ancestry.com, familysearch.org, findagrave.com, etc. I have made no attempt to obtain information that is not easily and normally accessible on the internet or through well-known genealogical sources, especially for those who are believed to still be living. Where information has been obtained from private family sources, sensitivity has been used in deciding what information is appropriate to be published in a public book.

The Ancestry and Immigration of John Pegoda

In historical vital records, the Pegoda surname is unique. From 1851 through at least the mid-1900s, virtually every person with the surname Pegoda was a descendant of one man – John Pegoda.

This unique surname appears to be the final result of a difficult Americanization process of a Prussian name. After his immigration to Walker County, Texas, John's name is variously seen in historical documents as Purugdy, Purgudy, Peagody, Pagoda, and finally Pegoda. Current research points to John being a member of the Pogade family that originated near Ruda, Poland in the mid to late 1700s. John is likely a missing branch in the family tree on the following page that was created by Wolfgang Pogade of Berlin, Germany. The best guess is that John is a long lost son or nephew of Johann Gottlieb August Pogade who was born 25 May 1794. Unfortunately, John left no clues as to his ancestry, and likely any information known within the family dies with his children many years ago.

John left Ruda, Prussia (now part of Poland) on 15 Apr 1851 on the ship Magnet and arrived in Galveston, Texas on 25 Jun 1851. He settled north of New Waverly in Walker County, Texas where there was a growing Polish population. To my knowledge, there is no surviving written or oral record that would answer questions as to why John came to America.

Often family genealogy books trace the descendants of a single man to give a picture of that portion of a family. This book is no different in that respect. But, the uniqueness of John Pegoda's surname makes this book special. It is not just "The Pegoda Family of Walker County, Texas" it is "The Pegoda Family in America." For many surnames a treatment of everyone with that surname is impossible. For the Pegoda family, this treatment is actually possible and this volume is a start.

Common spellings of the Pegoda surname found in historical records:
Pegoda, Pagoda, Pagota, Pegada, Pegodie, Pegota, Peagody, Purgudy, Purugdy

Interesting or Unusual Facts from Pegoda History

- There are at least 6 generations of descendants since John Pegoda, Sr.
- There are at least 194 descendants of John Pegoda, Sr. in the first three generations.
- John had 12 children. This first Pegoda generation died out in 1966 with the death of Annie (Pegoda) Sandel.
- John has at least 56 grandchildren. Members of this second Pegoda generation were still living as of 2014.
- John has at least 128 great-grandchildren.
- Conjoined twin boys were born to Casey Wilburn Pegoda and Vaudine Thelma Colburn on 23 Aug 1952. They died later that day.
- Henry Eugene Pegoda was killed on 03 Aug 1940 when his truck was hit by a train.

Unsolved Mysteries and Missing Documentation

- When did John Pegoda die?
- Ship manifest showing John Pegoda's immigration
- Did Nancy McGraw really die during or shortly after giving birth to her twins in 1881?
- When and where did Emily Morse die and where was she buried?
- What happened to Salley Pegoda, 7th child of John Pegoda and Nancy McGraw?
- Proof of Annie Pegoda being a child of John Pegoda and Nancy McGraw (e.g. a California death certificate).
- Why did Bessie Rogers have a child (Casey Wilburn Pegoda) more than 2 years after having been divorced from William N. Pegoda?
- Marriage information for Mary F. Pegoda and George W. Bankston (and vital stats / grave location for George)
- George Pegoda death location and death certificate
- A Myrl (Myrle) Pegoda is buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Lovelady, Houston, Texas. Henry Pegoda and his wife Freddie lee Thomas are buried in this cemetery with 2 of their children. Myrle has a death certificate which indicates she was a widow; born 29 Oct 1897 in Louisiana; died 17 April 1947 in Houston, Harris, Texas; father Matthew Cooper; mother Saphronia Jones. It is not known what Pegoda descendant Myrl was married to.
- A Celia Mae Pegoda is buried in Willis Cemetery in Willis, Montgomery, Texas. She is the only Pegoda in the cemetery. Celia has a death certificate which indicates she was a widow; born 31 Mar 1906 in Walker County, Texas; died 26 Aug 1971 in Conroe, Montgomery, Texas; father L. R. Brinkley; mother Callie Collier. It is not known what Pegoda descendant Celia was married to.
- A death certificate exists for a Dora Hart Pegoda which indicates she was married; born 08 Jun 1890 in Lovelady, Houston, Texas; died 01 Dec 1966 in Lovelady, Houston, Texas; father Benjamin Speer; mother Eliza McCarter. It is not known what Pegoda descendant Dora was married to.
- A Loudell Pegoda is buried in Glenwood Cemetery in Groveton, Trinity, Texas with birthdate 06 Feb 1926 and death date 15 May 2005. She is quoted as a niece of Mary Etta Pegoda (daughter of Henry Pegoda and Freddie Lee Thomas) in Mary's obituary. I am not certain to which of Mary's siblings Loudell belongs. My only guess is that she is the same person as Archie Lou Pegoda (daughter of Archer Henry Pegoda and Byrta Lou Roach). She first married a man named Bill Frank Tanner on 31 Mar 1966 in Harris County, Texas and second married a man named Grady Brewer on 17 Dec 1979 in Trinity County, Texas.
- A Loretta A. Pegoda is buried in Bath (Possum Walk) Cemetery in Walker County, Texas with birthdate 01 Feb 1939 and death date 15 Mar 2014. I am not certain that she is the Loretta Pegoda, daughter of Herman Emanuel Pegoda and Maggie Arnetta Johnson, that is already listed in the genealogy and was reportedly born 01 Feb 1938.
- A Loretta Pegoda is found marrying 5 men in six marriages in the Texas marriage records: Walter Carl Rackel on 04 Feb 1968 in Harris County; Fred A. Randall on 05 Jan 1971 in Fort Bend County; Dave W. Taylor, Jr. on 13 Apr 1973 in Harris County; Richard O. Hinton on 07 Feb 1978 in Walker County; and William C. Clark on 29 Aug 1979 and again on 31 May 1985, both in Walker County. Each report indicates a birth year of 1938 except the Randall marriage that reports 1939. So, this appears to be the same Loretta Pegoda. It is not clear if this is the Loretta A. Pegoda mentioned above or the daughter of Herman and Maggie mentioned above.

The Frank P. Pegoda Bible

The Frank Pegoda family Bible was in the possession of his daughter Fannie Alma Birdette Pegoda Alexander until her death in 2009. The Bible is now presumably in the possession of her daughter Kay Poe. Images of pages with relevant Pegoda genealogy information are included here.

Notes:

- John immigrated to the United States from Ruda, Germany on 25 Jun 1851. He left Germany on 15 Apr 1851 on the ship Magnet and arrived in Galveston, Texas on 25 Jun 1851[17, 18, 19].
- In early census records, John is described as a wagon maker. In later years, he worked as a farmer.
- For the descendants of John through his second wife Nancy McGraw, the Emily Morse portion of the family had been virtually lost. When I began researching the Pegoda family, no one in my part of the family knew what had happened to John's first wife Emily and their children. They just simply vanished after the 1860 census. The only explanation was that they had all died, perhaps from some disease outbreak or something. The usual hypothesis was that John was buried in Possum Walk Cemetery with both of his wives despite there being no official record for John or his wives' burial anywhere.

  Well, all of this turned out to not be true. The truth had likely been lost to history after the deaths of John's children. More distant descendants failed to discover the truth because of one difficulty: the misspelling of Emily's surname in the 1870 census.

  For reasons unknown, John and Emily divorced during the period from 1860-1870. Emily moved to Trinity County, Texas. But, in the 1870 census, her surname is Pegodie and she is living in a different county, a significant enough misspelling and enough distance for her discovery by later genealogy researchers to be quite difficult.
- Emily's maiden name is in doubt. While her marriage records states it to be Morse, Emily's mother Nancy Moss is living with her in the 1860 census. A search of the 1850 census using these surnames (and Morris) yields no evidence of the family. But, it has been recently proposed (by Jennifer Stankard) that the actual surname was Mass (or possibly Moss) and that the family lived in Bowie County, Texas in 1850. A Mary Mass is seen there with children James, Emily, and Susan[11]. Each of these children is married in Walker County, Texas within the two years during the early 1850s under the surname Morse[12, 13, 14]. The main discrepancy here is the mother's name – Nancy or Mary. The difference can only be accounted for as a mistake in one of the census records.

Notes:

- Nancy is believed to be the daughter of Zachariah McGraw seen in the 1860 census in Walker County, Texas[16]. The McGraw family could not be located in the 1850 census.
- Annie and Felix are known to be children of John Pegoda and Nancy McGraw based on testimony from family members (especially Fannie Alma Birdette Pegoda, granddaughter of John and Nancy). The cemetery record for Nancy's son Felix (who lived only from 1881-1887) states that he was raised by a couple named Otto and Julianna Jawaskie (Jaworski). I believe that it is quite probable that Nancy died at or soon after childbirth and John, being advanced in years, asked the Jaworski's, who had no children, to raise Felix and possibly Annie. So, I have given Nancy a death date of 01 Dec 1881.

Notes:

- After their marriage in Robertson County, Texas in 1873, Nancy and Frederick cannot be located. Their story is completely unknown. However, there is another marriage record in Robertson County, Texas dated 12 Jun 1875 for a Nannie Pentketh marrying a Silas Hatton. It is possible Frederick died or the couple divorced and Nancy remarried. Despite this evidence, Nancy can still not be located in the 1880 census.

Notes:

- It is not clear how many children Allen and Mary had. In both the 1900 and 1910 censuses, Mary reports having had 12 children with 8 living[7, 9]. But, their son Walter was born between 1900 and 1910[9], and only two deaths are known before 1900. It is likely there are missing children that were born and died between census events, and it is possible the child Fannie died before 1900.
- Mary's name and vital statistics are not engraved on the grave stone with her husband's information. I can only assume that she is actually buried there and for some reason an effort was not made to add her information.

Notes:
- John Pegoda, Jr. is seen with his parents in the 1860 census[1]. In 1870, he is not seen with either of his divorced parents[2, 3]. Lacking further evidence, the best conclusion is than John, Jr. died between 1860 and 1870.

Notes:

- William's ex-wife is erroneously listed as widowed in the 1910 census. She should have been listed as divorced as he is listed in the census. William did not die until 1954.
- I believe the birth date on William's grave marker is incorrect. His death certificate states his date of birth as 12 Mar 1861. For the most part, census records place his birth in 1867, most likely in Mar 1867. Since his death certificate information came from hospital records, I have assumed 1867 was miscopied as 1861 (the 7 appearing to be a 1). So, I have concluded the date on his grave marker (12 Feb 1860) to be wholly incorrect.
- I also believe the death date on William's grave marker is incorrect.
- Bessie reports 8 children with 7 living in the 1910 census. I have identified 7 children, all living. An 8th child that died before 1910 is missing from the list above.
- Bessie is shown as having an 8th (really 9th) child named Elmer C. Pegoda (8 years old) in the 1920 census (who actually turns out to be Casey Wilburn Pegoda). But, she and her husband had divorced more than 10 years before. I imagine there is a story here, so I have assumed that this is correct and William and Bessie had an 8th child at least 2 years after their divorce.

Notes:

- It seems unusual that John Pegoda, Sr. would name a child with his second wife Mary F. Pegoda when he had already given the name to a previous child with his first wife. But, this appears to be the case.
- Mary's name appears to initially have been Nancy[1].
- There is some confusion regarding Mary's birth date and birth order with her siblings. The early census records show her as a year younger than her brother William, and later census records place her birth date closer to 1869 or 1870. I have assumed that the birth year on her death certificate is incorrect.

Notes:

- Parentage for Lula inferred from cemetery records. She is buried with Henry and Freddie and there were no other Pegodas in the area around 1900. Since Lena also died in 1902, perhaps an illness killed the children.

Notes:

- Several years have been indicated for Frank's birth year: 1870 (death certificate, funeral home records), 1871 (grave marker), 1872 (census records), 1873 (Pegoda Bible record, census records). The year 1873 has been assumed to be correct based on the birth dates of Frank's siblings, the Bible record, and the census records.
- Lula was visiting her sister Minnie in California when she died.

Notes:

- Nola's middle name comes from her maternal grandmother.
- I am uncertain of the 2nd marriage to Len Warner since I have no documentation for it and Nola is buried under the surname Mayes.
- In the 1940 census Nola is living with / near her sister Charlene. Her son Thurston (Eugene) is listed with Nola's sister Charlene and brother Joe who are separated in the census from their father Frank Pegoda seemingly due to recording errors and difficulties.

- Charlene and her brother Joe are shown separate from their parents in the 1940 census. I believe this is just a recording anomaly since the other part of the family ends at the end of a previous page.

Marion B. Pegoda

Notes:

- In the 1910 census, Marion is listed as divorced. So, it is possible his first wife Emma lived beyond 1910. But, since all of their children are with Marion, I have assumed Emma died. I have not been able to trace her in census, cemetery, or Texas death or marriage records other than the report of an unmarked grave in Bath / Possum Walk Cemetery in Walker County, Texas[8].

- Salley is only seen in the 1880 census with her parents. Without the 1890 census it is difficult to say what happened to her. There is no evidence of her in Texas death or marriage records, there is no burial record for her in Walker County, Texas, and no known genealogical information has been published for her. In all likelihood she died before 1900 and was buried in an unmarked grave.

Notes:

- Information about Annie being a daughter of John Pegoda, Sr. and Nancy McGraw and her being a twin of Felix came from Fannie Alma Birdette Pegoda Alexander, who was a niece of Annie and Felix.
- Annie was surely raised by the same couple as her twin Felix (Otto and Julianna Jawaskie/Jaworski) since she gave her son the middle name Otto. See Felix's page for more information. She is living next to the Jaworski's in the 1900 census.
- Annie reports 7 children, all living, in the 1910 census. Only 6 children are present, and she cannot have had a 7th before 1910. I believe the census report is incorrect.

Notes:

- I believe her birth date in the cemetery record is correct and her death certificate and some census records are incorrect. Otherwise, her birth is too close to her brother Otto. But, it should be noted that her birth date is before the marriage date of her parents and when her mother was only 15 years old. There seems to be an open question here as to what exactly her and Otto's birth dates were.
- I believe her death date in the cemetery record contains a mistake (the last two digits of the year were also mistakenly used for the day).

Notes:

- I have some questions about whether Thelma is actually a child of Thomas Beede Sandel and Annie Pegoda. In the 1930 census, she is listed under Annie Sandel and is described as a sister-in-law to Ben Stahl, who married May Sandel. But, Thelma is not listed in the 1920 census with Annie and her children. Thelma's birthdate is after the date of death of Thomas, but not so far that he couldn't have fathered her just before his death. I have left Thelma as a child of Thomas and Annie under the presumption that she was mistakenly left out of the 1920 census since the 1930 census seems to strongly imply she is a daughter of Annie.

Notes:

- Information about Felix being a son of John Pegoda, Sr. and Nancy McGraw and his being a twin of Annie came from Fannie Alma Birdette Pegoda (Alexander), who was a niece of Annie and Felix.
- Felix's date of birth is taken from information about his twin sister Annie.
- According to cemetery records, Felix was raised by a couple named Otto and Juliana Jawaskie (Jaworski) who are buried near him. My hypothesis is that Felix's mother died during or shortly after the birth of the twins on 01 Dec 1881 and John, being advanced in age, gave them to the Jaworski family to raise. Felix subsequently died at the age of 5 while Annie lived to adulthood.
